

- EVACUATION IS NOT ALWAYS NECESSARY- the college administration will determine with the assistance of Nashua police how to proceed based on the information. Standard Precautionary Evacuation Procedures may be warranted.
- A timely notification will be E91the information

- Follow Shelter in Place procedures and secure yourself and others in a safe area.

- Do not use candles or open flames for lighting.

Medical Emergencies

- Alert emergency services (911), college administration, security, maintenance
- Offer comfort and support to individual until help arrives
- Obtain, as much information about person and situation, this information will be needed for emergency responders
- Clear area so that there will be room for responders to work
- A system of volunteers will be needed to flag responding services to the closest entrance to the area